

SELF-GUIDED WALKING TOURS ALONG HADRIAN'S WALL PATH

Enjoy exploring Hadrian's Wall Path between Wallsend and Bowness-on-Solway on a healthy, entertaining walking holiday.

Experience a sense of freedom in the National Park and discover the very special coast to coast landscape of heritage and culture in the World Heritage Site. We can prepare an itinerary to cover any number of days reflecting your interests and abilities, transferring your luggage and using well-recommended accommodation. Please contact us to discuss your ideas and to benefit from our local knowledge... we have walked the Wall Path so we know what we are talking about.

Cost example

8 nights, 7 walking days based on two people sharing, from £525 per person.

Prices vary depending on preferred itinerary and accommodation.

The Trail Officer suggests May to October for best walking conditions

Our Tour Guide will introduce you to the history of Carlisle Lugavallium, the Stanegate and the Wall Fort Uxellodunum as you leave the city. We will then show you many of the best views along the route of Hadrian's Wall World Heritage Site. There will be a stop at Lanercost Priory. We then follow the route via Banks Turret to view the Wall remains at Birdoswald Fort where you will have the option to walk a stretch of Hadrian's Wall Path to Gilsland. The guided tour then follows the Wall route into Northumberland National Park showing you remains of the Vallum at Cawfields and finally an option to visit the Fort and Museum at Vindolanda or to climb up to explore Housesteads Fort where you can enjoy some really fantastic views from the Whin Sill.
