Day Ranger and Rover tickets provide you with the freedom to explore the North by train allowing you to hop on and off the train as many times as you wish.

As the name suggests, day ranger tickets are valid for one day, whereas rovers allow you to travel on four days out of eight consecutive days or on seven consecutive days in the valid travel area.

You can buy ranger and rover tickets from staffed ticket offices throughout the country, at ticket vending machines or from the conductor on the train.

Discounts are available on these tickets. A 50% saving for children 5-15 years old and for holders of the 16-17 Saver card. Adult prices benefit from a one third discount for holders of national railcards listed below:

- 26-30
- Two Together
- Disabled Persons
- Senior
- HM Forces*
- Veterans*
- Family & Friends*

*Children travelling with these railcard holders benefit from 81% discount on the ticket price.

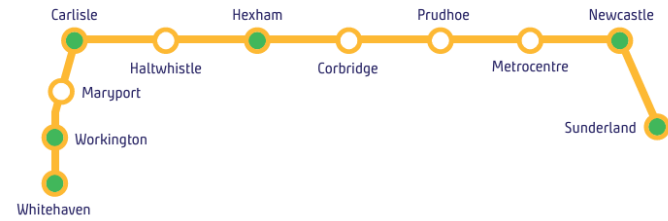

There are restrictions on times of travel on some of these tickets and the participating train companies may vary depending on the ticket type. Check out Northern's small print of the at <https://tinyurl.com/y7ae8bjn>

Other ranger and rover tickets are also available for travel in other areas of the country. You can also buy a rover ticket valid for 7 or 14 days for travel on rail services throughout the country. Find our more at <https://tinyurl.com/kfptvjwr>

Check out the following pages showing maps of the valid area of travel for many of the rangers and rovers available for travel in the North. Examples of ticket prices for these products are summarised on page 7.

 a valid ticket to travel is required unless boarding at a station without ticket-issuing facilities. Some rover tickets may not be available to purchase at ticket vending machines.
